

Wilmington Police Take Defiant Motorists Off The Streets

Wilmington Police partnered with the New Hanover County Courts today in "Operation Courthouse Defiance II" . This operation places non-uniformed officers in the courtroom and allows them to monitor recently revoked drivers, who choose to defy the judge and drive away.

Seven individuals were arrested as a result of this operation. The charges ranged from No Operator's License to Driving During Revocation. Each arrestee was placed under no bond. This was the second operations of this kind in Wilmington.
